In buying Monuments remember there is as great a difference in quality as there is in woods for durability. I handle none but the highest grade money will buy. I employ no agents, and can save you one-fourth in price below agent's prices. I keep Monuments on hand for your inspection, then there can be no deception; you know then whether you like it or not.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark have moved into Mrs. Van Fleet's house on south Niles street.

Mr. Hall, an uncle of Mrs. Frank Hudson, had his leg broken in the gravel pit south of town yesterday.

The singing at the funeral of Joseph Davey was by Miss Minnie Hodges of Sturgis and Mrs. Harvey.

Miss Katherine Cole celebrated her 13th birthday Tuesday, entertaining a company of her young friends.

Frank A. Showerman went to Ann Arbor last Monday and is taking treatment at the University hospital.

A number of people from surrounding towns witnessed the ball game here Tuesday between Paw Paw and Benton Harbor.

The remains of Earl Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones of Kalamazoo, were buried at Prospect Hill cemetery, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cumings are yet confined to the house from their Fourth of July accident. A trained nurse is caring for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson entertained a company of neighbors and friends Tuesday evening, in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morey of Detroit. Mr. Morey gave a fine program with his phonograph.

Trustee Ocoobock, president pro tem, presided at the council meeting Monday evening. The request of Electricians Kessler and Whelpley for increase of salaries was laid on the table for action by the full board. Claims were allowed amounting to $1,963.11.

Transportation Manager Drake of the Pere Marquette met a committee of Paw Paw business men in Judge Johnson's office Tuesday morning, to talk over the present unsatisfactory train service of the road. A satisfactory schedule was agreed upon, which Mr. Drake said he would recommend to the company, and it is hoped Paw Paw will obtain speedy relief from the present transportation inconveniences.

Brother Cole of the Courier says the B. M. society has the most one-sided ceremony of any organization he is acquainted with. The club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Rowland, Monday evening. The real name of the society was unknown to most of the guests; Harvey Sherman said it meant "Beautiful Maidens," and L. E. Shepard declared the letters stood for "Bald Men,"—but they didn't, any more than they did for the "Blue Monday" that the day suggested.

Jos. Davey, aged 71 years, died at his home Sunday afternoon. He had been failing in health for some time and was at Ann Arbor only a short time ago for treatment. He was born in England, and in 1856 he came to Paw Paw, where he has since resided. He was a man with no enemies and leaves many friends to sympathize with his wife and one son, Frank, who still survive. The funeral services were held at the Episcopal church Wednesday at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Lucas of Allegan. Mr. Davey was an old and respected Mason and a large number of the lodge attended the funeral in body. The Masonic burial service was had at the grave, conducted by Grand Master R. W. Broughton.

During the past week, E. E. Downing has made the following real estate sales: 40 acres of Harry Cushman in Waverly to John J. Riley of Chicago, $3,100; 40 acres of Leta Stevens in Waverly to Harry Cushman, $2,450; 48 acres of Ernest Wery in Antwerp to Frank T. Hill of Chicago, $3,000.

Mrs. Nellie Lane, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Pugsley, died at the home of her mother Thursday evening, July 9, after a long illness. The funeral services were held at the home Sunday at 2 o'clock, Rev. Henry Harvey officiating. Her husband, mother, brothers and sister survive her.

H. H. Howard of Bloomington writes to The True Northerner as follows: "You or the editor got my name wrong in the vote for Fremont in 1856. There is no H. H. Harvey in Bloomington. My vote for Fremont is all right. You can put George Lackey and Daniel Sill on that list. We all three voted for Zachary Taylor in 1848 and have voted for every whig or republican president since." Dr. Chas. S. Maynard and Aaron Hathaway of Paw Paw were both voters for Fremont.

Among the papers of the late Dr. C. M. O'Dell was found a petition dated April 23, 1859, for the institution of a lodge of good templars at Lawrence to be known as Lawrence Lodge No. 72, signed by the following individuals: Elijah C. Hazard, O. W. Rowland, M. D. Hazard, L. M. Hodges, Daniel Benjamin, James Harris, L. Watson, Edward Henry, Herrick Hodges, O. L. Field, Albert S. Haskin, Isaac C. Bunnell, Eunice Benjamin, Jerusha Rowland, Mary A. Benjamin, Mary E. Rowland, Mary N. Skelton, Hannah Utley, T. T. George, Daniel Gage. Of these 20 charter members of such lodge, eight, possibly nine persons are still in the land of the living.

John H. Charles and Ed. B. Longwell, Paw Paw druggists, were each arraigned before Justice Rowland yesterday charged with violation of the local option law, and each waived examination and gave bail to appear before the circuit court for trial at the next September term. The gist of the charge against each of them is selling intoxicating liquors in quantities of more than three gallons or more than 12 quart bottles to the same person or persons at one and the same time and so becoming wholesale dealers under the general liquor law of the state. The only difference in the charge brought against the two gentlemen is that Longwell is charged with a second offense.
